

NEWS FROM NEW-JERSEY.

JERSEY CITY.

MORE WORK THAN MEN CAN DO. There is a partial freight blockade at the Adams Express Company's pier in the Pennsylvania Railroad station, in consequence of the recent reduction of the force of porters and the strike of the drivers' helpers when they were asked to do the work of the porters. Yesterday afternoon and last night the long platform was covered with bundles, boxes and parcels of all descriptions, and the small force at work was totally unable to handle them. The situation is likely to become worse because in addition to the inexperience of the new men who were employed to take the place of the strikers, they are required to work from 6 a. m. to 11 or 12 p. m., with an intermission of only an hour for dinner. Some of the men with whom a Tribune reporter talked yesterday said they were nearly worn out with the long hours and hard work, and they could not stand the fatigue much longer. On the other hand Superintendent McWhorter said that everything was going along smoothly and that the work had not been delayed since the strike when the helpers refused to do the work of the drivers' helpers. There were about twelve men at work yesterday and they are expected to accomplish as much as was done by the porters. Last night at about four o'clock forty wagons were waiting on the pier to be unloaded and one car was piled to its utmost capacity.

Peter T. Donnelly died at 11:30 p. m. Wednesday at his home, No. 325 Fifth Avenue. After an illness of seven months, Mr. Donnelly was an active Democratic politician. He was elected to the Board of Aldermen in 1888 and in the following year was elected a member of Assembly. Last fall he was elected Freshwater, but has not been able to attend to the duties of his office. His son, Peter, was taken ill and the funeral will take place tomorrow.

The trial of Vito Turo, an Italian bootblack, for the murder of Peter Keogh, was finished yesterday in the Hudson County Court of Oyer and Terminer. The jury found him guilty of manslaughter and Judge Knapp sentenced him to ten years in State prison.

ENGLEWOOD.

TO WELCOME WILLIAM WALTER PHILPS. The members of the Englewood Club will entertain William Walter Philps, United States Minister to Germany, and his family at a reception on Tuesday evening. The following is the letter of invitation and the one of acceptance:

"Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.
Dear Mr. Philps:—The pleasure duty devolves upon me, by resolution of the governors, to invite you and your family to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

"Will you kindly inform me on what evening, at your convenience, you will give us an opportunity of taking you by the hand and of paying our respects to you and to the members of your family at club? I am sure you would appreciate it very much.

SHELDON ROMANS, President.

Hon. William Walter Philps,
The Grange, Peckville.

Dear Mr. Romans:—Englewood, Sept. 28, 1890.
I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

Mr. Philps, who is a member of the club, made arrangements for his arrival, and the members of the club will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

William Walter Philps, United States Minister to Germany, and his family will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—Englewood, Sept. 28, 1890.
I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

Mr. Philps, who is a member of the club, made arrangements for his arrival, and the members of the club will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

William Walter Philps, United States Minister to Germany, and his family will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—Englewood, Sept. 28, 1890.
I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

Mr. Philps, who is a member of the club, made arrangements for his arrival, and the members of the club will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

William Walter Philps, United States Minister to Germany, and his family will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—Englewood, Sept. 28, 1890.
I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

Mr. Philps, who is a member of the club, made arrangements for his arrival, and the members of the club will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

William Walter Philps, United States Minister to Germany, and his family will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—Englewood, Sept. 28, 1890.
I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

Mr. Philps, who is a member of the club, made arrangements for his arrival, and the members of the club will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

William Walter Philps, United States Minister to Germany, and his family will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—Englewood, Sept. 28, 1890.
I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

Mr. Philps, who is a member of the club, made arrangements for his arrival, and the members of the club will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

William Walter Philps, United States Minister to Germany, and his family will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—Englewood, Sept. 28, 1890.
I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

Mr. Philps, who is a member of the club, made arrangements for his arrival, and the members of the club will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—I accept your invitation to a reception in my members' room on Tuesday evening, which will have an opportunity to give you a hearty welcome home and to express our appreciation of your distinguished services both here and abroad."

William Walter Philps, United States Minister to Germany, and his family will be present.

At the Bergen County Republican Convention at Hackensack on Wednesday night Mr. Philps made a speech to the delegates. After declining his pleasure in meeting his old friends in Bergen County, Mr. Philps said:

"I think that the great issues still live, as it was in 1890, protection! With the American people retain the Republican party which used to protect them, and not a country which is not a nation, and which is not a nation, can be anything more attractive than to meet my old friends with their families under auspices which obliterate the political line, which has so often separated me from some of my old friends. The club, like theophilus Parker, Harrison, were awarded a position of honor, of honored guests. Harrison was first president of the best collection of home-made cakes ever seen in New York. Mrs. Parker, of White Plains; Candie Huttell, of New Haven; Mrs. Charles Wright, of Greenville, and Mrs. C. Lyon, of New Rochelle, were prize winners."

Englewood Club, Sept. 27, 1890.

Dear Mr. Romans:—Englewood, Sept. 2